1. INTRODUCTION

The Zimbabwe Music Awards (ZIMAs) exist to recognize accomplishments in the Zimbabwean Music and Recording industry, by honoring and celebrating those groups and individuals who have excelled in the relevant entry or qualifying period. The Zimbabwe Music Awards is the organizer and host of the ZIMAs.

2. THE SEQUENCE OF KEY EVENTS IN THE AWARDS PROCESS

- . 1) The Zimbabwe Music Awards will open for entry on 11 November 2019, and close on 31 December 2019. As well as public announcements through various media platforms including the ZIMA website.
- . 2) Record companies and/or individual artists are required to submit entries in accordance with the published rules of the Zimbabwe Music Awards
- . 3) The entries received are then screened for compliance with the ZIMA Rules in order to ensure that they are eligible and that they were submitted into the correct award categories. Vetting Committee members overseen by designated ZIMA officials, carry out this screening process, known as vetting.
- . 4) No artistic or technical judgments are made during vetting, and all ineligible entries that do not comply with the ZIMA Rules are disqualified subject to informing the relevant entrants and providing them with reasons. Entries that are found to be in the incorrect categories do not get disqualified but the Vetting Committee may move them to more appropriate places in consultation with the entrants, who shall have the final say on the location of their entries.
- . 5) There will be a panel of Judges to adjudicate all ZIMA categories with the exception of the Public Vote on Song of Year. The Judging panel composition gets reviewed annually. Members of the Supervisory Committee confirms them, taking into account their level of expertise in the relevant categories plus their general knowledge of the music industry.

- . 6) Eligible ZIMA entries are forwarded to the judges who adjudicate using the ZIMA electronic judging system, in accordance with defined guidelines and by applying the assessment criteria for each category. The ZIMA electronic judging system configured with a weighting criterion for each category, which is not visible to the judges. The weighting criterion is pre- determined by the members of various Steering Committees and it contributes to the final ranking of the judges' choices in each category.
- . 7) In the interest of System and Process Integrity, independent auditors collate the results returned by judges into auditable sets. The auditors enumerate the results on which a list of up to a maximum of five nominees per category is based and they ensure that the choices of the judges have been arrived at in accordance with all the relevant rules of each category.
- . 8) Once nominees for all categories have been collated, they are ready to be announced & Finally, the winners are announced at the Awards Ceremony.
